Dance at Gedney Farm For Roosevelt Fund
A dance will be given at Gedney Farm Hotel, White Plains, on next Friday evening for the purpose of raising funds for the restoration of Theodore Roosevelt's birthplace at 23 East Twenty-ninth street, this city. The dance is under the direction of Mrs. Edward D. Mosley, one of the foundation members of the Woman's Roosevelt Memorial Association. Tickets at $1 each may be obtained at the office of the association, 1 East Fifty-seventh street, or at the Gedney Farm Hotel on that evening. A prize will be awarded to the best dancer. The Woman's Roosevelt Memorial Association already has begun the work of restoring Colonel Roosevelt's birthplace and three stories of the building have been erected. In this structure will be restored the original furnishings of the Roosevelt home. The restored birthplace and its neighboring building will be connected and founded as Roosevelt House. It is the object of the association to establish therein a national center of Americanization and citizenship to perpetuate for all time the staunch Americanism which Theodore Roosevelt typified. Classes will be held for teaching English and American history and lectures will be given on these subjects.
The funds in hand amply warrant the beginning of the work but are not sufficient to complete the building. Consequently the members of the association call upon men and women everywhere to cooperate with them in this all-American tribute to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt.
